SUMMARY BRIEF

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The South African Council for the Project and Construction Management Professions (SACPCMP) is a statutory body established by Section 2 of the Project and Construction Management Act (Act No.48 of 2000), is a juristic person established for statutory professional certification, registration and regulation of Project and Construction Management Professions in order to protect public interest. In line with the Construction Industry development initiatives, the Council continues to advance and promote the science and management practice of project and construction management thereby contributing towards promotion of the Construction and Built Environment industries.

It further regulates the Project and Construction Management Professions to protect the public by identifying the type and scope of work, registering professionals and maintaining a national register of professionals who adhere to a Code of Conduct.

It also accredits Project and Construction Management programmes at tertiary educational institutions and recognises Voluntary Associations who assist in the promotion of the professions under the SACPCMP (South African Council for the Project and Construction Management Professions) umbrella.

OPERATIONS

The SACPCMP operates in the Built Environment alongside the other five Councils being:

- The South African Council for the Architectural profession (SACAP),
- The Engineering Council of South Africa (ECSA),
- The South African Council for the Landscape Architectural Profession (SACLAP),
- The Council for the Quantity Surveying Profession (SACQSP)
- and The South African Council for the Property Valuers Profession (SACPVP).

The National Minister of Public Works and Infrastructure is the Executive Authority of the Council and communicates with the Council through the Council for the Built Environment (CBE), which is the overarching body that co-ordinates the activities of all six Built Environment Councils.

SCOPE OF WORK

The objective of this project is to design, produce, print and deliver the South African Council for the Project and Construction Management Professions (SACPCMP) Annual Report for the period 1 April 2021 – 31 March 2022.

The annual report will be tabled in Parliament by the executive authority of the SACPCMP. The following publication will be distributed to all legal libraries and various stakeholders. The successful service provider will be required to design, print, produce and deliver the SACPCMP Annual Report to both the offices of the CBE and the SACPCMP.
