1. SCOPE OF WORK

The SACPCMP requires the services of a capable and experienced provider to support its marketing and branding initiatives. The selected service provider will be responsible for supplying high-quality memorabilia and a range of yearly commercial branding items. These materials will play a vital role in promoting the SACPCMP's visibility at industry events and stakeholder engagements.

The items may include branded stationery, clothing, and other marketing collateral. This initiative forms part of the Council's broader marketing strategy aimed at enhancing its professional image and stakeholder recognition. Regular replenishment of these items will ensure the Council is always equipped for outreach and promotional activities.

The provider will also be expected to align with SACPCMP's brand identity and quality standards. Ultimately, this partnership will support the Council's ongoing efforts to strengthen stakeholder engagement and public awareness.
